

Ms. Pieper's Peek of the Week

Week of January 14, 2019

Monday:

~ Daily Mass

Tuesday:

~ Physics Field-Trip

~ Choir

Wednesday:

~ 8:15 – 5th leads All
School Prayer @8:15

Thursday:

~ Mass @ 8:15 – Join us!

Friday:

~ AAG visit

~ End of Second Quarter

What's happening this week?

~ In Reading, we are continuing our novel studies of Hatchet and The One and Only Ivan.

~ In Science, we are finishing up our unit on forces and motion.

We have been working hard to design bridges out of paper that oppose the force of gravity when holding 100 pennies. We will be working on learning about the force of friction as well.

Upcoming Events:

1/21 – NO SCHOOL

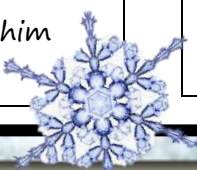

1/27 – Catholic Schools Week
Mass, Breakfast, and Bookfair

1/28 – Mass w/ Bishop Levoir

From the Teacher:

St. Andrew Corsini is our saint from this week. He was humble and made many sacrifices out of love for God and others when he was an adult. He had a really wild youth, however, until his mother's prayers finally led him into a church and to God!

Contact Information:

Ms. Ruth Pieper

Ruth.pieper@johnnirelandschool.org

507-931-2810 ex.136

<http://churchofstpeter.org/ji/>

